

Food & Lodging

Camping / RV:

A wide variety of campsites are available at the Anderson Camping Area. Some sites are shaded, others are open and grassy. All have picnic tables and fire pits. Two utility buildings include showers and flush toilets. Here are site prices:

- Tent without hookups $28/night
- RV with electric & water $43/night
- RV with electric, water & sewer $48/night

Note: one car or non-RV per site. One tent, trailer or RV per site. One additional pup tent allowed per site. A dump station is also available.

Cabins:

A limited number of rustic cabins are available near the camping area (not by lake). Book early! Cooking and dining equipment is provided in most cabins. Guests make beds on arrival.

- Anderson (sleeps 6) $80/night
- St. Louis (sleeps 4) $100/night
- St. Louis (sleeps 4 + 1) $125/night
- Walbett (sleeps 4 + 1) $125/night

Hotel:

Rooms are available in Roger Williams Inn with a queen and a single bed for $114/night for up to two adults and their children. Add $15 per night for each additional adult.

Meals:

Tired of camp cooking? Eat any meals at the buffet-style dining hall overlooking the lake. Breakfast $8.50, Lunch $10.00, Dinner $12.50

Ollie's Place Internet Cafe/Coffee Shop offers specialty gourmet coffees, bakery, hand dipped ice cream, smoothies, sandwiches, salads, pizzas, burgers and wireless Internet access!

Activities:

If you like to run and play:

The Green Lake Conference Center is a great place to enjoy God's creation, with many trails and small roads to explore the fields, woods, and lake views. Or climb Judson Tower to get a spectacular view 200 feet above the lake. The conference grounds are also ideal for family biking.

Note: Bicycles, golf, boats, and boat docking are available for rent. Or bring your own equipment.

Available activities include:

- golf
- tennis
- volleyball
- basketball
- softball
- soccer
- canoeing
- boat rides
- fishing
- nature walks
- tram tour
- ping pong
- shuffleboard
- disc golf
- carpet ball
- universal weight machines
- playground areas
- biking
- nature trails
- swimming (no lifeguard)

How about a Tee Time:

The Conference Center also contains Lawsonia, one of the premiere golf courses in the country, which offers two 18-hole layouts, a golf shop, and restaurant. It is just one of four fine courses in the area which make it a popular golf destination.

If you're crazy for crafts:

The craft building offers instruction and a broad assortment of supplies to make beautiful stained glass, ceramics, painted china, and lapidary (jewelry) projects at reasonable prices.

If you'd rather shop till you drop:

Worldwide Gifts has items from around the world and a wide assortment of books, cards, and gifts. The towns of Green Lake and Ripon are also nearby, offering opportunities for shopping, eating, and recreation. The Padelford Country Store is located in the camping area for the purchase of food and supplies.

Registration Timeline:

Please take note that we lose our lock on hotel rooms, cabins and campsites after June 4. Some lodging options fill up fast so please make your reservation early to insure a spot. Refunds may not be available after June 4.

Camp Program

Our plate is full this year. To kick things off, OP missionary to Haiti, Ben Hopp, will be giving us a report on the gospel ministry in Haiti. Following this, the Rev.

Neil Tolsma will be leading us in a biblical study of the practice of true love in the life of a Christian entitled, Abounding in Love: Living a life of godly love. He will also round things out with a session on OPC history entitled, The OPC and Me: Bringing to mind 52 years as an Orthodox Presbyterian on this the 75th anniversary of the denomination.
